FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

CHILD PORN PRODUCER, DAVID GARROW, SENTENCED TO OVER 10 YEARS IN FEDERAL PRISON

PRESS RELEASE

Susan W. Brooks, United States Attorney for the Southern District of Indiana, and the Indiana Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force announced that DAVID E. GARROW, Jr., 33, Terre Haute, Indiana, was sentenced to 10 years and 1 month imprisonment today by U.S. District Judge John Daniel Tinder following his guilty plea to 5 counts of producing child pornography. This case was the result of an investigation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Indiana State Police, the United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement, the Terre Haute Police Department, and the San Marcos, Texas Police Department.

On five different occasions, between January 1, 2003 and April 29, 2003, GARROW used and induced a minor to engage in sexually explicit conduct for the purpose of producing computer image and movie files of such conduct. The minor was identified in court documents through the use of the pseudonym “Jane Doe” and specific details concerning her identity remain confidential pursuant to federal law.

According to Steven D. DeBrotta, who prosecuted the case for the government, Judge Tinder also imposed three years supervised release following GARROW’s imprisonment.

The investigation was the result of information developed through the Indiana Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force with assistance from the San Marcos, Texas Police Department.
